OBJECTIVES
Anveshan provides a platform for aspiring technical students to compete with outstanding projects from various technical institutes all over the country.

ABOUT VCET
The Vidyavardhini Society was established in 1970 by late Padmashri H.G.Vartak alias Bhausaheb Vartak for the noble cause of education. VCET was established in 1994 and has been approved by DTE and AICTE. The college is affiliated to the University of Mumbai for four year degree program in six disciplines to the Bachelor’s degree in Engineering.

ABOUT EXTC DEPARTMENT
The EXTC Department was established in VCET in 1994 & Accredited by the NBA in 2012. The department has a perfect blend of an impressive HOD, very experienced senior teachers and enthusiastic young faculty along with latest equipments and software facilities. The students are encouraged to absorb practical knowledge along with theoretical concepts of the subjects. The department has nearly 100% University results with merit rankers in top 10 positions as well as excellent placements in well reputed companies. The department actively organizes workshops and seminars on latest trends in technology. The department encourages students’ participation in both extra and co-curricular activities while emphasizing curricular excellence.

ANVESHAN
Anveshan-2014 is A Project Showcase exhibition presented by the Department of Electronics and Telecommunication Engineering in collaboration with the student chapters IEEE VCET SB and VCET IETE SF. Initiated in the year 2007 with a view to provide a platform for the young engineers to showcase their skills and cognizance in the fields of Electronics and Computers. It supports the students from technical institutes to have a breakthrough quest into their brilliant minds. Anveshan hopes to nurture young talents to think beyond their limitations, work it out and analyze themselves against competing brains on a large scale.
