Report on “My story - Motivational Session by Successful Innovators” 7th March 2022

Objective: To develop awareness regarding to the innovation and provide a motivation to students by communicating journey of successful innovator.

About the Speaker: The guest speaker for the session was Mr. Sagar Hariba Chopade, who is a mechanical engineer and founder of Jay Malhar Automobile and Engineering. He innovates a small scaled JCB equipment by using scrap spares like engine of TATA 407 and gear box and parts like hydraulic pump. Mr. Sagar Hariba Chopade is successfully manufactured the material lifting bucket from scrap plates welded together. The machine manufactured is having capacity upto 1 tons and useful for application of sewage cleaning, debris removal at Municipal corporation works. Being an successful innovator became an entrepreneur for further manufacturing of small machines, body building of heavy duty vehicles, agriculture applications, automobile services. In the age of 28 years he proved himself to be a successful innovator who could be even successful entrepreneur as well.

Brief aspects of the event highlights:

A session was organized under the aegis of Institution's Innovation Council (IIC), VCET, Vasai. Mr. Sagar Hariba Chopade presented a seminar on the topic “My Story Motivational Session by Successful Innovators”. He started the session by introducing his mechanical workshop, Jay Malhar automobile and engineering. He spoke on a variety of important subjects, including generating the ideas and application, the significance of the correct technique and execution procedure, overcoming difficulties, and setting desired objectives, among others. He also communicated his entire journey, including how he first thought of implementing innovative ideas for the development of small scaled JCB equipment utilizing available scrap materials and creating a new adjustable spare. He overviewed his all good and bad times he encountered since commencing the project. He also discussed marketing methods, including how he built his client base and chose his target demographic, as well as financial factors, along with how he handled funds and settled on a pricing for his product while making it affordable. He encased off the discussion by describing how he plans to grow his business. He underline a sentence if you are ready to do hardwork then sky is the limit.

Students of the various disciplines like mechanical, civil, and computer engineering had taken part in the session with interest. All of the students and participants found the seminar to be highly encouraging and motivational. The students are eager to know how the testing of the manufactured components could be carried out, how to optimize the weight of the body of heavy duty truck , how the management of your organization takes place, strategies adopted for attracting the customers etc. Mr. Sagar interacted with students and satisfied to all the questions by sharing examples experienced by himself. The session ended with the vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Ashish Chaudhari, President, IIC- Vidyavardhini's College of Engineering and Technology (VCET), Vasai.

Learning Outcomes:

The following were some of the major highlights of the seminar's:

- A thorough understanding of generating ideas and startup.
- Understanding how to manage numerous elements such as advertising, marketing, and finance required for the successful entrepreneur
- How to deal with challenges that arise in the workplace.
